

Sofia Gavrilova
Oxford Russia Fund

The construction of silences in regional identity

I am aiming to reveal various institutions and actors who are constructing the identity of a city (Murmansk) and decode the narratives they are based on. I will specially pay attention to what is hidden, unsaid or taken away from the way official authorities are constructing regional and local identity and examine which factors influence on that.